

Biography for Kyleen Welling

Kyleen Welling is the Chief Operating Officer and General Counsel for Indiana Lieutenant Governor Sue Ellspermann. She provides legal counsel and financial oversight to five additional agencies—the Indiana State Department of Agriculture, Office of Tourism Development, Office of Small Business and Entrepreneurship, Office of Defense Development and the Indiana Office of Community and Rural Affairs. Kyleen previously served in a similar role under Indiana Lieutenant Governor Becky Skillman and began her career with the State of Indiana in 2005.

She is a volunteer with the Indianapolis Bar Association's hospice program, providing legal advice to indigent patients on end-of-life matters. Kyleen's professional interests include government administration, elder law and international law.

Kyleen earned a Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Social Science with a Business Concentration from Michigan State University and her law degree from Indiana University McKinney School of Law. Originally from Bedford, Indiana, she now resides in Indianapolis with her husband Brian and daughter Lilah.